

NGO HEALTH COMMITTEE PRESENTS

IMMUNIZATION:

A SUCCESSFUL HEALTH INTERVENTION WITH UNREALIZED GLOBAL POTENTIAL

PANELISTS:

PAUL A. WILSON, PhD

Assistant Professor of Population and Family Health, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University; Consultant to Gates Foundation on development of new drugs and vaccines. Prior Research positions at Harvard and Rockefeller Universities and Cornell Medical College and Assoc. Director Earth Institute, Columbia University. Lead Author of UN report Combating AIDS in the Developing World.

PAULINE HIMLAN, RN, FNP-BC, MEd

Nurse Practitioner in Travel, Hepatitis B and C, HIV Clinics
Division of Infectious Diseases, UMass Memorial Medical Center
Lecturer, University of Massachusetts Graduate School of Nursing
Lecturer, University of Massachusetts Medical School.
Worcester, Massachusetts

MADAM ZAHRA NURU, MS in Managerial Economics.

Former Secretary of Health of Tanzania. Previous Posts: Deputy Secretary of Labour and Social Welfare of Tanzania; Advisor to President of Tanzania on Diplomatic and International Affairs; Director/Senior Adviser to the Under-Secretary-General and the High Representative of the UN for Least Developed Countries.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 2015
4:00 – 6:00 PM

777 United Nations Plaza
10th floor Church Center for the UN
(44thst. & 1stave.)

CO-SPONSORS:

INTERNATIONAL HEALTH AWARENESS NETWORK
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF NURSING
ARMENIAN RELIEF SOCIETY

UN Grounds Pass Not Required

PARTNER

